

KAMAGURKA

Surgery successful, patient deceased Operatie geslaagd, patient overleden

The dadaist and absurd cartoonist Kamagurka is inspired by underground comics, Mad's Don Martin and the Belgian artist Pirana. He has a very satirical view of society. His main comics character is 'Cowboy Henk', a non-horse riding, non-smoking optimist who constantly has to cope with his blinking eyelids. English language readers can appreciate some of Kamagurka's madness in issues of Raw magazine and on his website, www.kamagurka.com

With his partner-in-crime Herr Seele, Kamagurka created the silly Lava TV television performances, and a western-inspired humorous series Cowboy Henk, for which Kamagurka writes the scripts. His character Bert and his little dog Bobje also are a big success. Kamagurka has left a definite mark on Dutch language humor.

Surgery successful, patient deceased brings together Kamagurka's cartoons on doctors and patients. Not to mention the sensitive subject of euthanasia. This new book will be published in November 2006.

Kamagurka's work is published by a number of magazines and newspapers, as The New Yorker, Raw, Hara Kiri, Charlie Mensuel, The Spectator, Titanic, Die Zeit and many others.
