

LEN MUNNIK

Paradiso

Len Munnik (1945) has contributed for over 25 years drawings to the Dutch daily Trouw. Further more his cartoons can be found in the feminist magazine Opzij and in popular television listings. As a graphic designer and social activist his drawings are also published to support animals rights groups and anti-war organizations.

Munnik is a master in expressing his social and political awareness. His first collection, Paradiso, is a contemporary version of the creation story. We all live in paradise, everyone may choose between good and evil. Would you make the same choices as Adam and Eve did?
